Inclusion Theatre, part of The United Arc Performing Arts Program, presents theatrical performances by members of The United Arc. The group's production will take you through time and space while individuals share their talents and their stories.

The Radical Inter-connectedness Festival offers art of all kinds created by artists addressing the concerns of marginalized communities. Come experience theater, music, installation, dance, poetry, video, and much more, all presented in downtown Turners Falls in a variety of alternative venues like storefronts, repurposed churches, the Discovery Center, the Shea Theatre - all in walking distance. Tickets at Eggtooth.org or at the Shea on Fest weekend.
