

The United Arc, Inc.

North Quabbin Friends Adventure Club

For people with intellectual and developmental disabilities

Mission:

A sense of adventure and discovery is incredibly important in order to be who you are and explore your talents and passions. The Adventure Club will participate in all kinds of different activities, such as hiking, exploring, watching films, and creating science experiments. Join us for the first meeting Thursday, October 5 in finding out more of your unique gifts and trying new things!

WHAT: Fun activities and projects to explore different passions and talents

WHO: North Quabbin Friends

WHEN: Thursdays from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Starts October 5!

WHERE: The United Arc,
361 Main Street, Athol, MA
01331

WHY:

Each person has the right to be who they are and should be empowered to do so!

Please contact us if you would like to discuss special accommodations to attend any event.
